WELCOME TO KINGSWORTH NEWS

Dear Parents,

Following the British elections (as I do), I noted that Tom Kibasi – the Director for the Institute for Public Policy Research – wrote in yesterday’s Observer that these present elections are devoid of “progressive ideas (that) we so desperately need”. It is not the place now to go into the ideas he espoused but it does draw me back to the need to find people - whether that be in politics or business or the creative arts industry – who not only can think outside the box but can offer up solutions based on the imaginative and creative leap. Kierkegaard, when speaking of his personal belief, talked of the absurd leap of faith. I would like to rephrase that and call it the absurd leap of vision. Something we have to push as teachers and parents alike.

The year is hurtling towards its end and there are a few events I think I should mention in this newsletter. The steering committee have asked me to remind you all that on Wednesday Morning (tomorrow, in fact) it will be the last coffee morning of this school year. It will take place at the Cafe Aero at Place de Passy from 9:00-11:00am June 7, 2017.

This Friday June 9th from 7:00-9:00pm there is a Wine and Cheese Night with Movie for the Children at the Copernic Campus. This is in many ways a logical follow-on of the Wednesday Open Afternoons, so please invite as many people as you possibly can. It will also be an opportunity for many of you to see the Copernic Campus. The address – should you not know it – is 38, rue Copernic.

Next week, sees the Summer Recital on Friday 16th June followed by the Year 13 Graduation. Also, let me remind you of the Primary School show at Copernic Campus on Tuesday, June 20th at 1.30 p.m. Finally, all this will culminate with the end of year show and prize giving Thursday 22nd June.

Well, I am keeping it brief and simple this time as I too am hurtling towards my personal end of the year! I look forward to seeing many of you at one or other (perhaps all?) of the events.

Effloresce nobiscum.
